The applicant therefore invokes the Timeliness provisions of the Notice of Robert Spar for Stephan B. Kunin, Deputy Commissioner for Patent Examination Policy of December 20, 2001, § II B.

If a duplicate is filed after the expiration of reply period but with acceptable proof of timely filing: If the original reply was timely mailed within the period from October 13, 2001 to December 1, 2001 using the certificate of mailing procedure under 37 CFR 1.8, and a duplicate copy is received in the Office after the period for reply has expired, then the Office shall accept the duplicate and the reply, and to have been timely filed, if the applicant submits:

- (1) a copy of the previously mailed reply and certificate of mailing of the previously mailed reply (the certificate of mailing must be signed and the certificate of mailing must itself indicate the date of mailing); and
- (2) a statement that the reply was previously mailed to the USPTO on the date indicated on the certificate of mailing.

Copies of the Amendment and Transmittal are attached. The certificates of mailing thereon are signed and the certificates indicate the date of mailing, October 29 2001.

This is a statement that the attached Amendment and Transmittal were previously mailed to the USPTO on October 29 2001.

Respectfully submitted,

Janet I. Cord
